

Ministry of Education (MOE) Tuition Fee Subsidy Declaration of Eligibility

(to be completed only by Singapore Citizens or Singapore Permanent Residents)

With effect from Academic Year 2008/09, the Singapore Government subsidizes the high cost of education for eligible Singapore citizens and Singapore permanent residents in the Part-time Bachelor of Engineering Programme in NTU through a Tuition Fee Subsidy. A student who meets the eligibility criteria will be entitled to the subsidized tuition fee unless he/she opts not to receive this subsidy.

To qualify for the tuition fee subsidy, a Singapore citizen (SC) or Singapore permanent resident (SPR) must:

- a) Not have previously received a government subsidy/sponsorship for a first degree;
- b) Be at least 21 years of age; and
- c) Have either 2 years of full-time work experience or have fully discharged his full-time national service liability or is currently employed on a full-time basis.

(part-time employment will not be considered as full-time work experience. A part-time employee is one who works for less than 35 hours a week under contract of service with an employer.)

To help us determine your eligibility for the MOE Tuition Fee Subsidy, please complete this declaration form if you are a Singapore citizen or Singapore Permanent Resident.

I declare that the information provided by me in this application form is true and accurate and that I have not deliberately omitted any relevant fact. Failure to my update nationality changes at the relevant departments before the deadlines or in a timely manner will result in delays or postponement of my subsidy application to the following semester. Should I be granted a tuition fee subsidy based on the above information which later turns out to be false or inaccurate, I understand that the tuition fee subsidy will be withdrawn from me and I will render myself liable to appropriate action.
